Covered Call Writing Today: Innovative Strategies & Simple Techniques. Color. 90 mins. mins. Video Released Apr. 2004. Instructed by Rick Lehman. ?A well-planned covered call writing program - implemented on a month-to-month basis - will consistently outperform a basic buy-and-hold stock strategy- and with far less risk,? contends covered call veteran Rick Lehman. And, it will do so in both up and down markets. But - few training materials have been available to investors eager to include covered call writing in their trading arsenal.Now, capture the power and profit of covered call writing by following the unique methods outlined in this one-of-a-kind presentation. Using 25+ years of experience, and results from more than a decade of testing on both the CBOE's Buy/Write Index and 20 individual stocks, Lehman illustrates exactly how covered call writing works, when you should write calls, when you shouldn't - and everything in between.In step-by-step detail, Rick outlines basic concepts and innovative new approaches to covered call writing, including: 6 steps for structuring a winning trade5 primary indicators that tell you when NOT to write a callSelecting the right strike price for optimum covered call writing returnsRecognizing option pricing inconsistencies & selling overpriced contractsDealing with ?The Big C? - key commission considerationsUsing covered writing to ?tame? the volatility in highly active stocksCompounding returns by using margin on covered call positionsPlus ?advanced variations of covered call writing strategies, how to make adjustments that can turn a losing trade into a winner, the optimum time frame for using a covered call strategy, calculating the risk/reward scenario in a covered write, using the Buy/Write Index as a benchmark for trading performance, and so much more. With full online support manual, this workshop is an invaluable eye-opener for anyone interested in finding new ways to lower market risk and consistently improve investment performance. It's also a great companion to Rick's bestselling book, New Insights on Covered Call Writing. See why trading experts like John Murphy call Rick's material "a great case for reading and writing - reading stock charts and writing covered calls."Complete Online Support Manual available at: www.traderslibrary.com/tradesecrets ttp://www.traderslibrary.com/tradesecrets. Cracking the Code of Life, 1 disc. Color. 120 mins. (NOVA Ser.). CC Age: 12-UP. Home, Group, Public performance. NR. (Narrated: English). Video Released Jan. 2004. Does it amaze you that yeast is your very close relative? That you possess roughly the same number of genes as a mouse? That you are 99.9% genetically identical to every other human? ABC Nightline correspondent Robert Krulwich lends a lighthearted touch to genetic science in this provocative two-hour NOVA special that takes you inside the amazing, complex and contentious race to decode the human genome. The Human Genome Project was born in 1990, when an international consortium of labs set out to sequence all 3 billion letters of our DNA, predicting they'd finish by 2005. Halfway through their schedule, controversial scientist and entrepreneur J. Craig Venter threw the genome world into turmoil, when he announced his for-profit company Celera could finish the job in just two years. Francis Collins, leader of the publicly-funded effort, and MIT's Eric Lander were among the scientists who answered Venter's challenge. The result made history and laid the foundation for a remarkable future. Armed with this powerful information, medical pioneers are in the midst of astonishing breakthroughs that will change medicine as we know it. Will you get cancer, arthritis, or Alzheimer's? The answer lies in your genetic code-but the question is: Do you want to know? And will these new discoveries eventually lead to cu. WGBH Boston Video. DVD. SPECIAL FEATURES:-English (with or without subtitles), Korean, Japanese, Arabic, Cantonese, Hindi, Tagalog and Mandarin language tracks -Actors' bios plus director's and producer's commentary on the production-Historical footage of Nicky Cruz preaching in South Africa-"Back to the Cross and the Switchblade" - Dave Wilkerson's ongoing effortsDigitally remastered from the original 35mm negative.Although the original events depicted in this classic from the drug infested, gang dominated streets happened over thirty years ago, the life-changing solution that David Wilkerson brought to desperate lives was just beginning. The beat goes on. The change in the life of notorious gang leader Nicky Cruz, as shown in the film, proved to be wonderfully lasting and real. Nicky continues today to reach young people around the world with the same life-changing message of the gospel of Jesus Christ that delivered him from violence and despair. And what about the skinny preacher, David Wilkerson, who braved the meanest streets of New York to tell desperate and drug crazed youth that there was a better way? Now, three decades later, he is still at it with a ministry based in Times Square that is still changing lives and offering genuine hope to countless souls who had given up on life.Now in over 25 languages, The Cross and the Switchblade, starring Pat Boone and Eric Estrada, is one of those rare films that has shown its unique power to connect with the deepest hopes and fears of youth around the world. It remains today one of the most compelling stories of love, grace and the truth that no one is ever so far gone that they cannot find the way out. Vision Video. DVD. Cultivating Human Development in Organizations: A Vision for Sustainable Business in the 21st Century. (1999). Documentaries, Miscellaneous. Color. (Business & Consciousness Ser.). Made-for-Video. Video Released Feb. 1999. Jacqueline Lambata. This video will explore how stages of development impact workplace structure & culture. Most of us link our identity to what we do or produce in the workplace. The origin of the workplace lies in the Industrial era. During this era, a military model was employed - the zero sum game strategy where what one person gains is at the expense of another. There is a belief in this system that it is possible to control everything. It is an addictive system. Addictions separate us from our development by blocking our feelings. In this negative feedback loop, meaning is ultimately lost & the global workplace is not longer sustainable. We cross a threshold when we link development with sustainability in the workplace. Moving through the states of development enhances one's capacity to create the results one truly cares about. A dialogue will be created, focusing on the awareness of feelings & how that facilitates truth & well being which serve as beacons of safety. Message Co., The. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-57282-086-9(1)) $24.95.

Cut Your Trading Taxes in Half. Color. 64 mins. mins. Video Released Apr. 2005. Instructed by Ted Tesser. There are two tax systems in this country, one for the knowledgable and one for the ignorant, and this video will ensure you are knowledgeable about the tax system. You watch your trades tick by tick and this tool tells you how to avoid giving it away in taxes. In 1997, the tax code was changed and provided a number of opportunities specifically for traders, but you can bet the IRS isn't going to call you to tell you about them. In fact, your accountant may not even be aware of them. But in this video, Ted Tesser shares the strategies that he uses himself to significantly reduce his taxes. You'll find out how to pay less taxes by understanding:- How to reduce your declared income- What deductibles traders are entitled to- Which expenses traders can deduct that other people may not be able to- What tax programs give you the most advantage as a traderThere are advantages to being recognized as a trader as opposed to an investor by the IRS and this video tells you what you need to do to achieve trader status. Tesser also outlines his Triple Crown Tax Strategy that will cut your taxes in half! Proven strategies and vital information about the tax advantages unique to traders make this a must-have video for any investor or trader. Marketplace Bks., Inc. DVD. Cymatic Soundscapes, Vol. 4. (1976). Science-General. Color. 30 mins. (YA). Age: 11-UP. (gr. 6 up). G. Video Released Oct. 1994. The study of wave phenomena is a science pioneered by the late Swiss physician Dr. Hans Jenny in the early 1970's. This series highlights Dr. Jenny's fascinating experiments animating inert media such as Lycopodium powder & liquid kaolin to reveal intricate geomorphic patterns & dynamic "flow forms," animated solely with audible sound. The detailed narration explains the experiments & describes several correlations with naturally occurring solar & terrestrial phenomena. These remarkable demonstrations of the vibrational nature of matter are immediately understandable & indeed awe-inspiring to anyone with an interest in the natural sciences. MACROmedia Publishing. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-888138-02-3(5), Order #: CYMSS) $24.95.

Cymatics: The Healing Nature of Sound. 79 mins. Demonstrated by Peter Guy Manners. The stunning array of images seen in this program are actual physical phenomena. These flowing forms result from sound frequencies stimulating various liquids, powders & iron filings. Cymatics is the study of wave phenomena pioneered by Dr. Hans Jenny & inspired by Rudolf Steiner. His penetrating observations of patterns in nature led to these dramatic experiments animating inert substances with audible sound. Adapting these principles for therapeutic treatment, Dr. Peter Guy Manners explains the theory behind using audible sound to balance acute & chronic conditions in body tissue. The images are awe inspiring & prove that sound & vibration have a real effect on the physical world. Explorations. VHS. (Order #: 80-0464) $29.95.

D. W. Griffith. Film-Biography. Color. 14 mins. Public performance. This capsule biography of D. W. Griffith, told through vintage film clips, documentary footage & animation, presents the history of motion pictures. Griffith was an actor, a director & a script writer, & he was the inventor of the basic grammar of telling stories through the dramatic narrative power of motion pictures. Until Griffith started directing, motion pictures were merely a penny arcade novelty that reproduced on film the forms created on stage. He transformed the medium by making the camera move & brought the story to life through close-ups, cutting & cross-cutting, fades in & out, & an entire vocabulary of cinematic technique. Dance & Trance of Balinese Children. Anthropology. 43 mins. Group. Contribution by Margaret Mead, Gregory Bateson. Produced by Madeleine Richeport-Haley, Jay Haley. Combining footage taken over 50 years ago with footage shot today to show how the tradition of teaching Balinese children to dance is still being passed on from generation to generation. Today, one can still see the training of children through repetition, imitation & forceful manipulation into the correct positions. One sees that the children may go into trance during ceremonial dances & learns that, to the Balinese, children are sacred. Even when Balinese live in the US, the children are taught to dance. They teach dance & pass on their traditions to other children; combining their Balinese heritage & their US living experiences to create a new, multicultural dance. Filmakers Library. VHS. $350.00, Rental 65.00.

Dark Craving, 1 disc. Orig. Title: Heart Stopper. Color. 90 mins. mins. Age: 18-UP. NR. Video Released Jun. 2004. Directed by John Russo. Produced by Charles A. Gelini. Screenplay by John Russo. DARK CRAVINGIn 1776, a Colonial physician, Benjamin Latham (Kevin Kindlin), is wrongfully accused of practicing sorcery and hanged from the gallows. To prevent his unholy resurrection, his body is desecrated and buried at a crossroad. 200 years later, the condemned doctor?s burial site is accidentally unearthed and he rises from the grave as a vampire in modern day Pittsburgh! Upon discovering his new, unnatural thirst for human blood, Dr. Latham decides to track down his contemporary descendents with the aid of a photographer, Lenora Clayton (Moon Zappa). While Latham only feasts upon the dregs of society to quench his crimson cravings, a deranged copycat killer goes on a rampage that skyrockets the city?s terror alert level. With detective Ron Vargo (Tom Savini) hot on his trail, the heroic superhuman vampire confronts the savage serial killer in a fog-shrouded cemetery!Starring Kevin Kindlin (CONSPIRACY THEORY, FLESHEATER, THE MAJORETTES) Moon Zappa (NATIONAL LAMPOON?S EUROPEAN VACATION, Frank Zappa?s VALLEY GIRL) Michael J. The DataCAD Videos, 10 cass. (1991). Computer Graphics. Architecture. Color. 420 mins. Made-for-Video. Video Released Nov. 1991. Leonard Nasman. Designed to provide beginners with a project oriented approach to building skill & confidence in using DataCAD for architectural design. Rather than simply grinding through the various menus & functions, the project oriented approach introduces DataCAD functions & concepts as they are needed in the context of creating architectural designs. The content of the projects has been carefully paced & sequenced to efficiently lead the new user to mastery of the most frequently applied concepts of computer aided design & drawing. The content of the DataCAD Videos is correlated with the book "Beginning DataCAD" (ISBN #1-880544-00-8). Microcomputer Education Systems, Inc. VHS, Set. (ISBN: 978-1-880544-11-2(3), Order #: DC111) $650.00.

The DataCAD Videos: Beginning Drawing with DataCAD, 2. (1991). Computer Graphics. Architecture. Color. 50 mins. Made-for-Video. Video Released Nov. 1991. Leonard Nasman. This tape introduces the DataCAD interface & covers some of the fundamental drawing commands. Topics covered include: Setting the drawing file path; starting a new drawing; creating double line walls; installing doors & windows; using template symbols to add furniture; saving a drawing file; loading a drawing file; adding & manipulating drawing layers; creating pictorial views of a plan; creating new drawings from old with the "SaveAs" function. The contents of this tape are correlated with Projects #1 & #2 found in the book "Beginning DataCAD". Microcomputer Education Systems, Inc. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-880544-02-0(4), Order #: DC102) $75.00.

The DataCAD Videos: Creating Custom Template Symbols & Default Drawings, 7. (1991). Computer Graphics. Architecture. Color. 47 mins. Made-for-Video. Video Released Nov. 1991. Leonard Nasman. This tape shows how to create custom 3D template symbols. It also explains how to create, edit, & use default drawings. Topics covered include: Creating template files, creating & using 3D symbols; creating kitchen designs using custom symbols; creating a default drawing directory; creating, editing, & using default drawings. The contents of this tape are correlated with Projects #13 & #14 found in the book "Beginning DataCAD". Microcomputer Education Systems, Inc. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-880544-07-5(5), Order #: DC107) $75.00.

The DataCAD Videos: Creating DataCAD "Slide Shows", 10. (1991). Computer Graphics. Architecture. Color. 36 mins. Made-for-Video. Video Released Nov. 1991. Leonard Nasman. This tape shows how to create display sequences from DataCAD drawing or layer files. Topics covered include: Creating a perspective "walk-around" of a 3D model; creating a "fly-through" of a 3D model; creating an automated presentation of a series of views; creating a "slide show" from a collection of different DataCAD drawing layers; using the "ViewMaster" macro to automatically remove hidden lines from a series of views. The contents of this tape are correlated with Project #17 found in the book "Beginning DataCAD". Microcomputer Education Systems, Inc. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-880544-10-5(5), Order #: DC110) $75.00.

The DataCAD Videos: Editing & Dimensioning with DataCAD, 4 (1991). Computer Graphics. Architecture. Color. 34 mins. Made-for-Video. Video Released Nov. 1991. Leonard Nasman. This tape describes various editing techniques, & introduces the DataCAD dimensioning options. Topics covered include: Erasing, welding lines; using the stretch function; trimming lines; selecting text, dimension, & arrowhead styles; creating horizontal, vertical, & aligned dimensions; using the string & overall dimensioning options; adding arrows to text notes; adjusting dimensions with the stretch function; mirroring, copying, & rotating objects, specifying rotation angles. The contents of this tape are correlated with Projects #6 & #7 found in the book "Beginning DataCAD". Microcomputer Education Systems, Inc. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-880544-04-4(0), Order #: DC104) $75.00.

The DataCAD Videos: Intermediate Drawing with DataCAD, 3. (1991). Computer Graphics. Architecture. Color. 37 mins. Made-for-Video. Video Released Nov. 1991. Leonard Nasman. This tape continues the introduction of the DataCAD interface & covers additional features & drawing commands. Topics covered include: Adjusting the automatic save delay timing; creating & naming new drawing layers; adjusting wall width & grid snap; cleaning-up wall intersections; using the "big cursor", using the object snap function; creating a wall opening; selecting & using different door types; adding template symbols with fixed & dynamic rotation; changing the Z-base; removing hidden lines from a pictorial drawing. The contents of this tape are correlated with Projects #3, #4, & #5 found in the book "Beginning DataCAD". Microcomputer Education Systems, Inc. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-880544-03-7(2), Order #: DC103) $75.00.

The DataCAD Videos: Site & City Planning with DataCAD, 5. (1991). Computer Graphics. Architecture. Color. 45 mins. Made-for-Video. Video Released Nov. 1991. Leonard Nasman. This tape shows how to enter property line data from typical surveyor distance & bearing angle information. It also shows how to "block-out" a 3D city plan using 3D entities. Topics covered include: Specifying Z-base & Z-height; selecting line types; creating lines from bearing & distance data; creating fillets; using move & copy commands; creating a 3D block city model using 3D entities; saving a hidden line image as a drawing layer; arranging plan & pictorial views on the same drawing. The contents of this tape are correlated with Projects #9 & #10 found in the book "Beginning DataCAD". Microcomputer Education Systems, Inc. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-880544-05-1(9), Order #: DC105) $75.00.

The DataCAD Videos: Using Data Macros, Vol 9. (1991). Computer Graphics. Architecture. Color. 36 mins. Made-for-Video. Video Released Nov. 1991. Leonard Nasman. This tape shows how to use various DataCAD macros. Topics covered include: Creating a concrete column & beam structure using macros; using the polyline macro to create complex polygons; determining the area & perimeter of a polygon using the polyline macro; creating 3D straight & spiral stairs using macros. The contents of this tape are correlated with Project #16 found in the book "Beginning DataCAD". Microcomputer Education Systems, Inc. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-880544-09-9(1), Order #: DC109) $75.00.

The DataCAD Videos: 3D Modeling with DataCAD, 8. (1991). Computer Graphics. Architecture. Color. 41 mins. Made-for-Video. Video Released Nov. 1991. Leonard Nasman This tape shows how to create 3D planning models using both "tip-up" construction, & by creating models with 3D entities. It also shows how to add gable & hip roofs & dormers, & to create objects using surface revolution. Topics covered include: Creating quick planning models with "tip-up" construction; using 3D entities to create architectural models; creating gable & hip roofs; adding dormers; creating models using surface revolution. The contents of this tape are correlated with Project #15 found in the book "Beginning DataCAD". Microcomputer Education Systems, Inc. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-880544-08-2(3), Order #: DC108) $75.00.

The DataCAD Videos, Vol. 1: DataCAD Overview, 1. (1991). Computer Graphics. Architecture. Color. 42 mins. Made-for-Video. Video Released Nov. 1991. Leonard Nasman. An overview of the capabilities of DataCAD as an architectural design & drawing tool. The tape includes real-time demonstration of DataCAD drawing using examples from the book "Beginning DataCAD". A simple floor plan is shown being created (including door & window cut-outs & adding furniture), & then a number of pictorial views (including hidden line removal) are created along with a perspective walk-through of a 3D wire-frame model of the design. All of this takes place in just 4 minutes, illustrating the speed & power of the DataCAD software. The tape also highlights many of the DataCAD construction, editing, & dimensioning features. You will see a motel room designed & then quickly transformed into "Ferd's Motel 8". Microcomputer Education Systems, Inc. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-880544-01-3(6), Order #: DC101) $25.00.

The DataCAD Videos, Vol. 6: Creating Detail Drawings & Typical Wall Sections. (1991). Computer Graphics. Architecture. Color. 44 mins. Made-for-Video. Video Released Nov. 1991. Leonard Nasman. This tape shows how DataCAD can be used to create detail drawings & typical wall sections. Topics covered include: Creating foundation details; selecting & using hatch patterns; hatching different types of areas; creating a typical wall section; using different line types; using editing tricks for trimming & extending lines. The contents of this tape are correlated with Projects #11 & #12 found in the book "Beginning DataCAD". Microcomputer Education Systems, Inc. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-880544-06-8(7), Order #: DC106) $75.00.

Dateline Jerusalem. Color. 120 mins. mins. Video Released Dec. 2003. Here is the Easter story as you have never experienced it. You?ll feel like you are back in Jerusalem during Holy Week, the most momentous week in the history of the world, and the setting for this ?special news report.? With anchor Martyn Lewis and special on-the-scene correspondents, these news bulletins and reports cover the story of Holy Week in an enlightening presentation that provides greater understanding of the circumstances leading up to and surrounding Christ?s crucifixion. Eight 15-minute segments on two tapes. Programs 1-4 begin with the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday and examine the events and intrigues that follow: the dramatic challenge of the moneychangers, the trick question of paying taxes to Caesar, and the ?evidence? of blasphemy and treason when Jesus claims to be the Messiah. All are explained in fascinating detail as the narrative unfolds.Programs 5-8 cover Jesus? arrest, crucifixion and resurrection. The politics and intrigue of first-century Palestine provide the backdrop for the betrayal and execution of a man who has changed the course of history. How will this turbulent Rabbi be remembered? And what is one to make of the reports that he has come back from the dead?In this innovative series, using all the techniques of modern news gathering, combined with the treasures of historical research, the story of that first Holy Week comes alive again-putting the stories of faith in the realm of a real world.Includes leader?s Guide in pdf format.DVD Features:Languages: EnglishSubtitles: NoneViewing Format: FullscreenSound:Bonus Material:Chapter SelectionsReflective Questions. David Gilbert: A Lifetime of Struggle. 28 mins mins. (YA). Age: 12-UP. Non-Profit, Home. Video Released Mar. 2002. Editor Lisa Rudman. Executive Producer Claude Marks. A rare opportunity to go behind prison walls for a discussion with David Gilbert, a lifelong anti-imperialist activist and former member of the Weather Underground Organization. David is now serving a life sentence in prison for activities in support of the Black Liberation Movement. He explains why he joined the movement, what led him to go underground, and frankly discusses the strengths and errors of the movement and the WUO.Countering media distortions, David speaks from his own experience about a time of tremendous social upheaval and lessons for today.David Gilbert is among the longest held anti-imperialist prisoners in the world. As a teenager David began working against the Vietnam war and for Black civil rights, and later became a leader of the Columbia University student strike and Students For A Democratic Society. He was an organizer at a time of great social upheaval. In 1969, 120 cities burned in Black uprisings, and in the same period 400 campuses organized student strikes against the Vietnam War. In the 1970s he joined the Weather Underground Organization and worked underground for more than a decade. He was arrested in 1981. Along with others, he was convicted on a conspiracy charge for his participation in a Brinks truck hold-up aimiing to raise funds for the Black Liberation Army. David is serving a sentence of 75 years to life, without possibilty of parole.In prison for more than 20 years, David has continued his work for social justice. Very early, he called attention to the AIDS epidemic in oppressed communities in the U.S. and organized prisoner peer education programs on AIDS. He is an advocate for the rights of prisoners, a prolific writer and a devoted father and friend.This interview took place in July, 1998 at Great Meadows Prison, Comstock, New York. It is part of the oral history of the radical movements of the 1960s and 70s, and is useful for starting discussions in classes and study groups. This 30-minute video was edited in March 2002 by Claude Marks and Lisa Rudman. Based on an interview done in July of 1998 at Great Meadows Prison, Comstock, New York with Sam Green and Bill Siegel. Camera: Federico Salsano. For more information on political prisoners and what you can do to help free them http://www.prisonactivist.org/jericho_sfbayandhttp://www.thejerichomovement.comSeveral of David's writings have been published by Solidarity in pamphlet form; Aids Conspiracy Theories - Tracking The Real Genocide; Looking At The White Working Class Historically; SDS/WUO - Students For A Democratic Society and the Weather Underground Organization (available online at Solidarity's website at http://www.tao.ca/~solidarity or thru their distributor http://www.kersplebedeb.com). DaVinci Deception, 1 DVD. Color. 120 mins. mins. (Briefing Packages by Chuck Missler). G. Video Released Jan. 2004. Author Chuck Missler. Dan Brown's bestselling book, The DaVinci Code is a real page-turner but constitutes an intentional and very malicious attack on the person of Jesus Christ and Christianity. It has caused much confusion among those inadequately informed about the origins of the Gospels and the history of the early church.While it is admittedly a work of fiction, it presents, in advance, a series of statements which Brown declares are true and accurate that are not. Brown's deliberate twisting and distortion of facts throughout the book are cleverly crafted to mislead the uninformed.The many questions deriving from the outrageous heresies promoted by the book will be answered in this briefing. Chuck includes insights - and hidden codes - which appear to have been missed in the deluge of critiques the book has stimulated. Koinonia Hse., Inc. DVD. (ISBN: 978-1-57821-261-3(8)) $19.95.

Dead Man's Bluff. (2005). Color. 105 mins. (Subtitled: English). Video Released Jun. 2006. Featuring Dmitri Dyuzhev, Nikita Mikhalkov, Aleksei Panin. LA Molotov cocktail of gruesome carnage, eccentric characters, and off-beat humor, Dead Man's Bluff casts a bracingly cynical eye on recent Eastern European history. Director Aleksei Balabanov (Brother) uses "uniformly ace" (Variety) cameo performances, by Russia's most prominent actors, to send up both the greed-is-good mentality of the newly democratized former Soviet Union and the self-conscious Tarantino / Guy Ritchie-style crime films of the 90's. This ferocious farce suggests that on the mean free-market streets of modern day Russia, the only real liberty is the freedom to kill. Trigger-happy sibling assassins Simon (Dmitri Dyuzhev) and Sergei (Aleksei Panin) work as errand boys for Mikhailovich (Nikita Mikhalkov - Oscar(r) winning director of Burnt by the Sun), the sadistic kingpin of a provincial Russian town. But after brains Sergei and brawn Simon bungle a crucial drug deal, and a crooked cop's death squad grabs their briefcase of "hell powder" heroin, Mikhailovich's patience wears thin. The brothers' life and death quest to reclaim their stash initiates a messy turf war of beatings, torture and close-quarter gun-play. But as the bodies pile up, Simon and Sergei discover that in the circus-mirror world of capitalist New Russia, cops, gangsters, lawbreakers, and lawmakers can be interchangeable. Kino on Video. DVD. (UPC: 7 3832904742) $29.95.

Death of a Cyclist. B&W. 87 mins. (Spanish, Subtitled: English). Video Released Apr. 2008. Directed by Juan Antonio Bardem. Upper-class geometry professor Juan and his wealthy, married mistress Maria José, driving back from a late-night rendezvous, accidentally hit a cyclist, and run. The resulting, exquisitely shot tale of guilt, infidelity, and blackmail reveals the wide gap between the rich and the poor in Spain, and surveys the corrupt ethics of a society seduced by decadence. Juan Antonio Bardem's charged melodrama Death of a Cyclist (Muerte de un ciclista) was a direct attack on 1950s Spanish society under Franco's rule. Though it was affected by the dictates of censorship, its sting could never be dulled. Criterion Collection. DVD. (ISBN: 978-1-60465-028-0(1), UPC: 7 1551502862 2) $29.95.

Degas & the Dance, 1 disc. Color. 54 mins mins. NR. Video Released Apr. 2004. Degas and the Dance is a documentary on painter Edgar Degas that focuses on the artist's obsession with dancers and dance. No artist has ever been more closely associated with images of dancers than French Impressionist painter, Edgar Degas. More than half of his vast output of paintings, drawings and sculptures was devoted to ballet dances and dance students of the late 19th century. The Degas and the Dance exhibit, organized by the American Foundation of Arts, the Detroit Institute of Arts and The Philadelphia Museum of Art, captures the largest collection of Degas works on dance ever assembled. In addition to showcasing the exhibition, the telecast features recreations of Degas' studio as well as evocative dance performances and location sequences at the Palais Garnier, including the once-notorious Foyer de la Danse, where young ballerinas would meet their "patrons". Degas and the Dance is narrated by Frank Langella and features Brian Bedford reading from Degas' writings and actor Peter Badger portraying Degas. KOCH Entertainment, LLC. DVD. The Development Road. (1991). Agriculture. Science-Environmental Studies. Forests. 12 mins. (Decade of Destruction Ser.). (YA). Age: 11-UP. (gr. 6 up). Produced by Adrian Cowell. The first nail in the coffin of the rainforest is always a road. First comes a surveyor, then bulldozers, then loggers, then a small settlement, & finally farm families. In Rondonia, the name of the road was BR364. Jose Lutzenberger, Brazil's best known environmentalist, points out the incredible inefficiency of the region's economy which is totally dependent on imported energy. It's a system that cannot last. Before long all the valuable wood will have gone. Cattle ranches are already proving successful. Cash crops like cocoa are vulnerable to Amazonian diseases. So far 60 percent of the land that was cleared is now abandoned. Is this development?. Bullfrog Films, Inc. 3/4" U-Matic, pap., stu. ed. (ISBN: 978-1-56029-356-9(X)) $200.00, Rental 25.00.

Diary of Revival: 1904 Welsh Awakening. Color. 62 mins. mins. Video Released Dec. 2003. Over the course of Christian history there have been seasons of revival when the Holy Spirit is powerfully manifested among the people of God. This usually results in dramatically changed lives and a visible impact on the surrounding social order. One of the most far-reaching revivals ever took place in 1904 in Wales. This small land of hills, mountains and once industrial valleys, is a nation proud of its history and culture with many still speaking their own distinct tongue ? Welsh or ?Cymraeg.? It is a land littered by castles and forts ? remnants of battles for independence with their Anglo Saxon neighbors. Yet, the land is also covered with churches and chapels that speak of other battles of a more spiritual nature. The land that became known as the Land of Revival. Through use of contemporary letters, interviews and photographs, this video examines the beginning and outbreak of the 1904 Welsh Revival, through the eyes and thoughts of the Revivalist himself, the 26-year-old Evan Roberts. From his conversion at 13 to the outbreak of Revival in November, 1904, the video traces the steps in his spiritual development from the coal mine and blacksmith?s shop to the grammar school at Newcastle Emlyn and the actual outbreak of Revival at his home church of Moriah Lougher.SPECIAL FEATURES:-Chapter titles provided for easy scene access-Movie trailer-Epilogue. Vision Video. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-56364-758-1(3)) $20.00.

Diary of Revival: 1904 Welsh Awakening-DVD. Color. 62 mins. mins. Video Released Dec. 2003. Wales?CYMRU?a small land of hills, mountains and once industrial valleys. A nation proud of its history and determined to guard its own unique inheritance. A people with their own culture with many still speaking its own distinct tongue ? Welsh ? or ?Cymraeg? as the ?Cymro? or Welshman might say. A land littered by castles and forts ? remnants of battles of independence with their Anglo Saxon neighbors. Yet a land covered with churches and chapels that speak of other battles of a more spiritual nature. The land that became known as the Land of Revival.Through use of contemporary letters, interviews and photographs, this video examines the beginning and outbreak of the 1904 Welsh Revival, through the eyes and thoughts of the Revivalist himself, the 26-year-old Evan Roberts. From his conversion at 13 to the outbreak of Revival in November, 1904, the video traces the steps in his spiritual development from the coal mine and smithy to the grammar school at Newcastle Emlyn and the actual outbreak of Revival at his home church of Moriah Lougher.DVD Features:Languages: EnglishSubtitles: NoneViewing Format: FullscreenSound:Bonus Material:EpilogueTrailer. Digital Photography: The Camera. 80 mins. (YA). Age: 15-UP. Public performance. G. (Narrated: English). Video Released May 2003. Digital photography is changing the way photographers create images with a new sense of imagination. Digital pictures are more then instant images as they can be instantly changed and improved. This is creativity at its best! A digital camera is a wonderful new tool and a great addition to any photographer's camera bag if they know how to use it. That's what DIGITAL PHOTOGRAPHY, THE CAMERA is all about, teaching the fundamentals of this exciting new creative tool. If you're new to photography or an experienced film user you will find this program full of practical information and instruction on digital imaging. This new media age is here and it's time to get aboard and explore the creativity possibilities. Global Home Video, Inc. DVD. (ISBN: 978-0-9740965-0-6(4), Order #: DVD1) $39.95.

Digital Photography Captured, Vol. 1. Color. 61 mins mins. Age: 9-UP. Home. NR. (Narrated: English). Video Released May 2003. Directed by Michael Harvey. Designed by Robert Bauld. Hosted by Greg Gilbertson. Produced by Robert Bauld. This DVD covers everything from how to buy a digital camera to making the most of your digital camera?s features and capabilities. It addresses the needs of everyone from first-time digital photographers to more seasoned enthusiasts wishing to hone their skills. And best of all, it allows users to learn quickly, easily, and at their own pace utilizing interactive DVD technology. Bauld, Robert. DVD. (ISBN: 978-0-9729789-0-3(9)) $34.95.

Digital Photography, Crafting Images, 1. Color. 95 mins. Age: 0. Public performance. NR. (Narrated: English). Video Released Nov. 2003. Author Brian Ratty. With the advent of inexpensive digital cameras the world of photography has been opened to millions of new image makers. There are few things that last longer then time, pictures are one of them. Learning how to craft these pictures is an essential step in producing images that are timeless and treasured. Digital Photography, Crafting Images teaches the fundamentals of the 'art and craft' of making, not taking, digital images. Global Home Video, Inc. DVD. (ISBN: 978-0-9740965-1-3(2), UPC: 9780974096513) $39.95.

Digital Photography, the Darkroom, 1. Color. 98 mins. Public performance. (Narrated: English). Video Released Apr. 2004. Author Brian Ratty. Photography is an expression of a very personal form of art and the digital darkroom can only widen this expression. Working with everyday technology such as digital cameras, scanners, computers and printers a photographer can craft amazing images that rival traditional film and the works of the masters of the art world. Making digital images into excellent prints is a combination of art and science that is only limited by the photographer?s imagination.?Digital Photography, the Darkroom? is the starting point for learning the fundamentals of digital image manipulation. This program will lead the viewer from photo input to correction and creation to output and storage. The digital darkroom is more then just a process; it?s the ability of a photographer to create outstanding images that are both useful and beautiful. Global Home Video, Inc. DVD. (ISBN: 978-0-9740965-2-0(0), UPC: 9780974096520) $39.95.

Digital Signal Processing, 14 cass.; set. (1989). Technology. Contribution by University of Notre Dame Staff. Instructed by James Melsa, Charles Rohrs. Combines the theory & application of digital signal processing & includes demonstrations as appropriate to illustrate concepts. Contents: Introduction to digital signal processing (DSP); Discrete-time signal & systems; Frequency domain representation & sampling; the Z-transform; the Discrete Fourier Transform (DFT); the Fast Fourier Transform (FFT); Digital filter design; Finite register effects; Applications of DSP in telecommunications. Lecture Notes included. Assn. for Media-Based Continuing Education for Engineers. VHS, pap. $1800.00. Rental 900.00.

Digital Signal Processing: Old Dominion University, 27 cass. (1997). Technology. Contribution by Peter Silsbee. Introduction to fundamental concepts of digital communication, including: introduction to formal information theoretic & signal space concepts. Assn. for Media-Based Continuing Education for Engineers. VHS, Set; incl. lecture notes. $2500.00; VHS.

Digital Signal Processing I, 40 cass.; set. (1999). Technology. 2000 mins. Contribution by University of Massachusetts Staff. Instructed by Haluk Derin. The representation & analysis of discrete-time signals & systems. System representations using difference equations, impulse responses, Fourier transforms & Z-transforms are considered. Topics: Representation of discrete-time signals, sampling theorem, aliasing problems, Z-transform. Discrete-time systems, impulse-response, frequency response, transfer function, difference equations. Realizations of discrete-time systems. Lecture Notes included. Assn. for Media-Based Continuing Education for Engineers. VHS, pap. $10000.00, Rental 3500.00.

Digital Signal Processing with Applications Module 1: Foundations of Digital Signal Processing. (1995). Technology. 1380 mins. Contribution by Purdue University Staff. Instructed by Jan Allebach. Introduces the fundamental concepts associated with DSP - an integrated & thoroughly modern introduction to the growing area of digital signal processing (DSP). Topics include: signals, systems, Fourier analysis, sampling, Z-transform, DFT, FFT, digital filter design. Prerequisites: undergraduate calculus & physics, designed for quick learning of important concepts, regardless of background in DSP. Lecture Notes included. Assn. for Media-Based Continuing Education for Engineers. VHS, pap $2300.00, Rental 1150.00.

Digital Signal Processing with Applications Module 2: Image Processing & Imaging Systems. (1995). Technology. 1020 mins. Contribution by Purdue University Staff. Instructed by Jan Allebach. An integrated & thoroughly modern introduction to the growing area of digital signal processing (DSP): specific applications. Topics: 2-D Linear systems & spectral analysis, sampling & scanning, display & printing of images, image enhancement & compression. Prerequisites: undergraduate calculus & physics, but is designed for quick learning of important concepts, regardless of background in DSP. Lecture Notes included. Assn. for Media-Based Continuing Education for Engineers. VHS, pap. $1700.00, Rental 850.00.

Digital Signals: Information Transmission Fundamentals. (1997). Technology. Electronics. Color. 67 mins. G. Made-for-Video. Communicates certain basic concepts critical to understanding many digital technologies employed in the telecommunications network. Digital technology allows users to transmit information (voice, video, data) at high rates & with a clear & clean signal. Telcordia Technologies. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-57305-213-9(2)) $295.00.

Digital SLR Photography: With Mark Duehmig. (J). Age: 10-UP. (English). Video Released Sep. 2008. Instructed by Mark Duehmig. Produced by Show Me How Videos. Show Me How Videos. DVD. (ISBN: 978-1-934362-29-7(8)) $29.95.

Digital Systems Testing, 40 cass.; set. (1999). Technology. Contribution by Georgia Institute of Technology Staff. Instructed by Abhijit Chatterjee. Introduction to the basic concepts in digital systems testing. Advanced topics in fault modeling & simulation, test pattern generation & design for testability. Lecture Notes included. Assn. for Media-Based Continuing Education for Engineers. VHS, pap. $8000.00.

Digital Systems Testing, 41 cass.; set. (1999). Technology. 2460 mins. Contribution by University of Idaho Staff. Instructed by James Frenzel. Fundamentals of testing & design for testability of digital electronic systems at both the module & board level. Topics include circuit simulation, fault modeling & simulation, test pattern generation, design for testability & built-in self-test. Lecture Notes included. Assn. for Media-Based Continuing Education for Engineers. VHS, pap. $5000.00.

Digital Television: A Cringely Crash Course. (1998). Telecommunication. 30 mins. CC Public Broadcasting Service (PBS), VHS. (ISBN: 978-0-7936-3070-7(3), Order #: A3406) $14.95.

Digital TV with Bob Cringely. Technology. 30 mins. CC Hosted by Robert X. Cringely. Cringely cuts through the maze of technical jargon & explains what digital television is all about, including data transmission, high-definition TV, technological advances, industry competition & digital television's rapidly growing market. Public Broadcasting Service (PBS). VHS. (Order #: A3406) $14.98.

The Digital Video. Computers (General). 30 mins. First Light Video Publishing. VHS. (Order #: C693) $59.95.

Doing Morning Meeting: The Essential Components, 1 DVD. Color. 30 min mins. (gr. k-8). Video Released Jan. 2006. Author Responsive Classroom. Morning Meeting is a simple and powerful tool for improving classroom climate. In K?8 classrooms nationwide, students and teachers begin each day with this daily routine in which classmates gather in a circle to greet one another, listen and respond to one another's news, practice academic and social skills, and look forward to the events in the day ahead.In this video, you'll see Morning Meetings in action in two classrooms, a first grade and a fifth grade at Kensington Avenue School in Springfield, Massachusetts. The video has four segments, each devoted to one component of Morning Meeting:GreetingSharingGroup ActivityNews and AnnouncementsYou'll see teachers Leslie Cirone and Maureen Russell as they use daily Morning Meetings to foster an atmosphere of trust and respect, an atmosphere where children feel safe enough to take the risks necessary for learning. You'll also see the many ways in which Morning Meetings can be used to give students daily practice in important social and academic skills.Scenes from the classrooms are interwoven with teachers reflecting on their practice and offering ideas for making Morning Meetings successful. This video is intended for staff development, as well as for providing an introduction to Morning Meeting for teachers, families, and administrators. The accompanying viewing guide offers suggestions for using the video to stimulate reflection and discussion. Stenhouse Pubs. VHS. (ISBN: 978-1-57110-474-8(7)) $95.00.
